

month I	month II	month III and month IV	month V	month VI
Database development	Modeling	Development	Integration	Final test
Modeling the database according to the necessary requirements	Modeling of the WEB version system and for mobile application together with the database	Development of WEB system and mobile application	Integration of the WEB system and mobile application with the database	Final test of the system in the environment to be used